Extol × David Samuel

Working together to win new clients.

E — D

Extol Affiliates and David Samuel. Monday 26 October 2026.

Agenda

Two halves: where Extol is today, and how we grow together.

Who we are and what we've done

1. What Extol does
2. The problem we solve
3. What the audit showed
4. Our clients so far

What we offer and your role

1. Thought leadership
2. The six-part system
3. Results and pricing
4. Your role
5. The first 90 days

Who we are

What Extol does, and why it matters.

We make experts the name buyers think of first

AI agents do the work. Nothing goes out without the client’s approval.

founders

platforms run per client

LinkedIn, X, Instagram,
Threads, Substack, YouTube

2½ h

a week of client time

One short note, then
approvals on their phone

The problem: buyers don’t know great experts exist

Why do great experts stay invisible to the buyers who need them?

No time

Experts are busy doing the work. Marketing comes last.

No system

New work comes only from referrals, so growth can’t be planned.

Too much noise

Buyers ignore generic, AI-written posts and messages.

Real example

A former Big Four partner had 1,597 LinkedIn followers and 9 reactions per post.

The audit shows it: real stories get 6× more attention

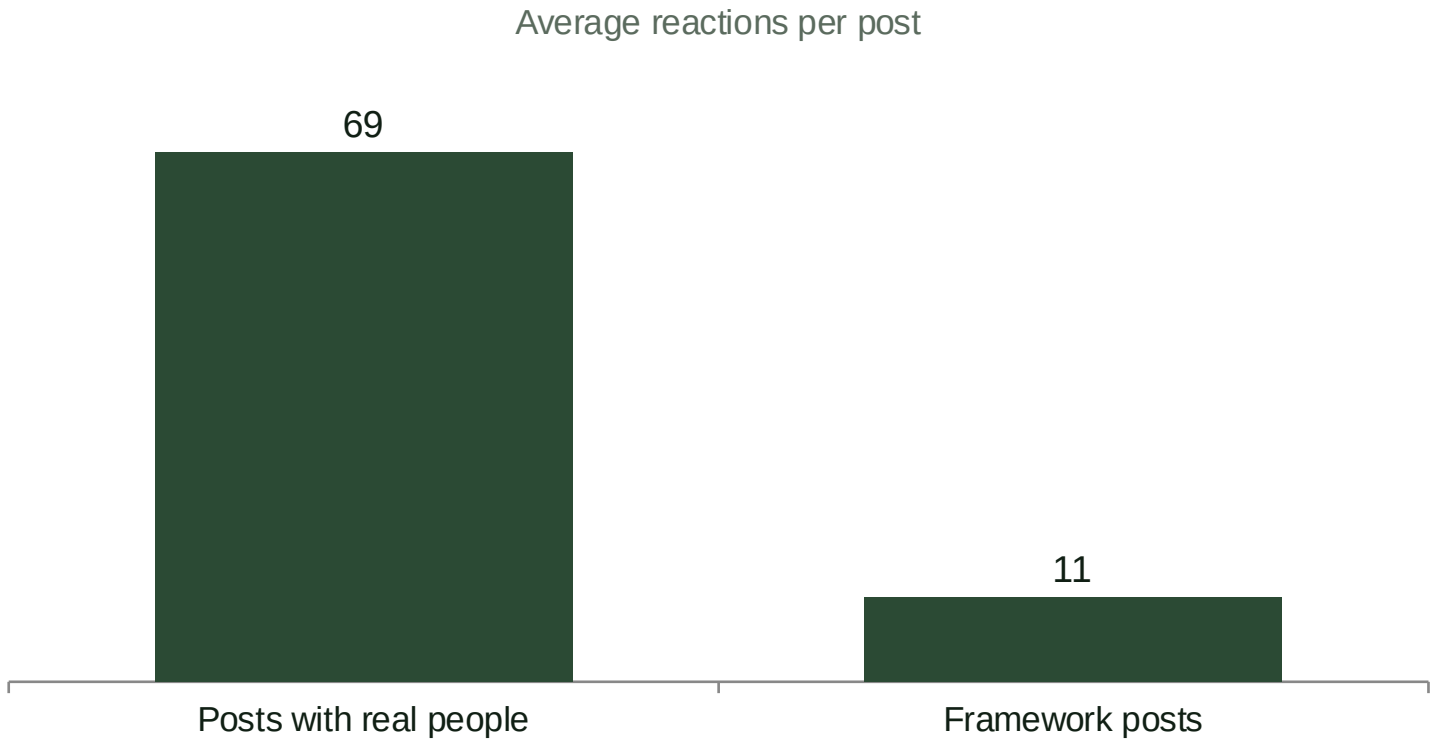

Same person, same audience, this year’s posts.

Insights

Posts with named people in them got 69 reactions on average. Framework posts got 11.

76% of their comments were just “congrats”.

The expertise is there. It isn’t reaching buyers in a way they notice.

What we’ve done

The clients we’ve worked with so far.

Three clients, three markets, one method

3D Images AI and Bloggerly are public. The consultancy is under NDA.

Client	What they sell	What we did
3D Images AI	3D product models for Amazon	Outreach to 2,100+ Amazon brand owners
Bloggerly	SEO articles for businesses	LinkedIn campaign; leads now asking for calls
UK consultancy	Finance and SAP advice	Full growth plan, delivered the day after the first call

Our own proof: when Extol’s LinkedIn page reached about 50 followers, new clients started coming to us.

What we offer

The system, why each part exists, and what it costs.

The goal: position the client as a thoughtful leader

Not an influencer. A voice buyers trust.

Layer #1

One signature idea

The line people remember and repeat. Every post leans on it.

Layer #2

A clear point of view

Weekly posts that take a side, in the client's own voice. Never AI slop.

Layer #3

Proof and presence

Client stories (named only with permission), seen in feeds, inboxes, webinars and communities.

The system has six parts, and we run all of them

Grouped into four jobs. The next slides go deeper on each.

LinkedIn, run by agents

- Profile and posts
- Comments and connections
- Follow-ups and DMs

Cross-platform posting

- X and Threads
- Instagram and YouTube
- Substack newsletter

Webinars and community

- Monthly buyer webinars
- Skool community
- Clips from every session

Website and reporting

- One place to land
- Articles that rank
- Live dashboard, monthly review

LinkedIn runs on agents, end to end

The client spends about 10 minutes a day approving drafts on their phone.

Research

Finds buyers with a reason to talk this month

Connect

Personal requests at a human pace: 5 a day, rising to 20

Comment and post

3–5 comments a day, weekly posts in their voice

Follow up and report

DMs that never pitch; who replied and who booked

One idea, published everywhere buyers look

LinkedIn, X, Instagram, Threads, Substack and YouTube.

Step #1

Write once

The client sends one short note a week: a voice note or a few lines.

Step #2

Adapt per platform

Each platform gets its own version, never a copy-paste. Buyers and community audiences stay separate.

Step #3

Own the audience

The Substack newsletter builds a list the client owns, not one an algorithm owns.

Webinars and community turn followers into clients

Buyer sessions sell the expertise. Community sessions build the audience.

#1 Webinars

Monthly, 45 minutes. Buyers bring a real problem; the expert solves it live. Every attendee followed up within 48 hours.

#2 Clips

Every session is cut into short clips for every platform, so one hour feeds a month of posts.

#3 Skool community

Waitlist, free taster, paid cohorts and a self-paced membership. Agents handle admin and reminders.

Every piece passes our Taste system

Taste is Extol’s creative-direction library: 200+ proven posts, reels and websites, each broken down.

Rule #1

Match

Each new piece is matched to the one reference that fits its goal.

Rule #2

Apply

We use that reference’s craft: structure, pacing, type and layout.

Rule #3

Never copy

Their assets stay theirs. Colours and voice stay the client’s.

What we expect outreach to produce each month

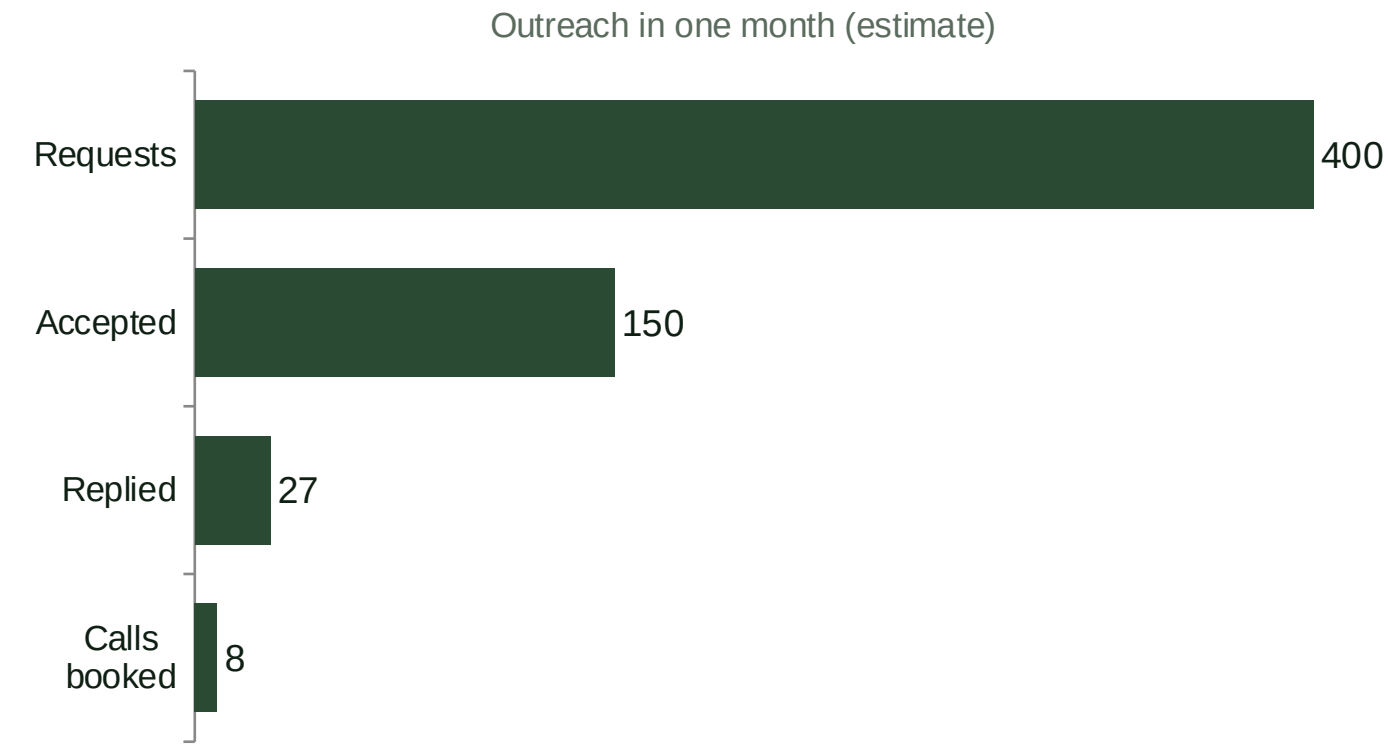

At full pace: 20 connection requests a day.

Insights

37% of requests accepted. Warm contacts accept far more than cold.

18% of those reply, because every note names a reason to talk.

30% of replies book a call. No pitch in the first message.

Planning estimates from our consultancy client's plan, not yet proven results

Leads should build up month by month

Qualified leads per month: buyers who reply, book or sign up. Likes don’t count.

Insights

Month 1 is set-up and warm-up, so leads start small.

By month 6 the system passes 100 qualified leads a month.

Big contracts take 6–12 months to close, so the first win usually lands in months 6–12.

Forecast mid-points from our consultancy client’s plan, not yet proven

From 100 leads to 2–3 clients a month

The client’s own rule of thumb, by month 6.

Leads

Buyers and shortlisters who reply, message, book or sign up. Quality over quantity.

Calls

About 1 in 10 leads is worth a real sales conversation.

Clients

2–3 paying clients, at the pace the firm can deliver well.

What it costs: one fee, every tool included

Founding-client price. Prices exclude VAT.

When	Fee	What it covers
Month 1	£1,500	Set-up, voice interview and website build
Months 2–3	£1,200 a month	Founding price: full delivery and weekly call
Month 4 onwards	£2,500 a month	Every platform, agent, Skool, webinar tool and report

Our promise: at day 60 we review the results together. If we’re behind plan, we fix it in writing, or the client can leave.

One client win can pay for the whole year

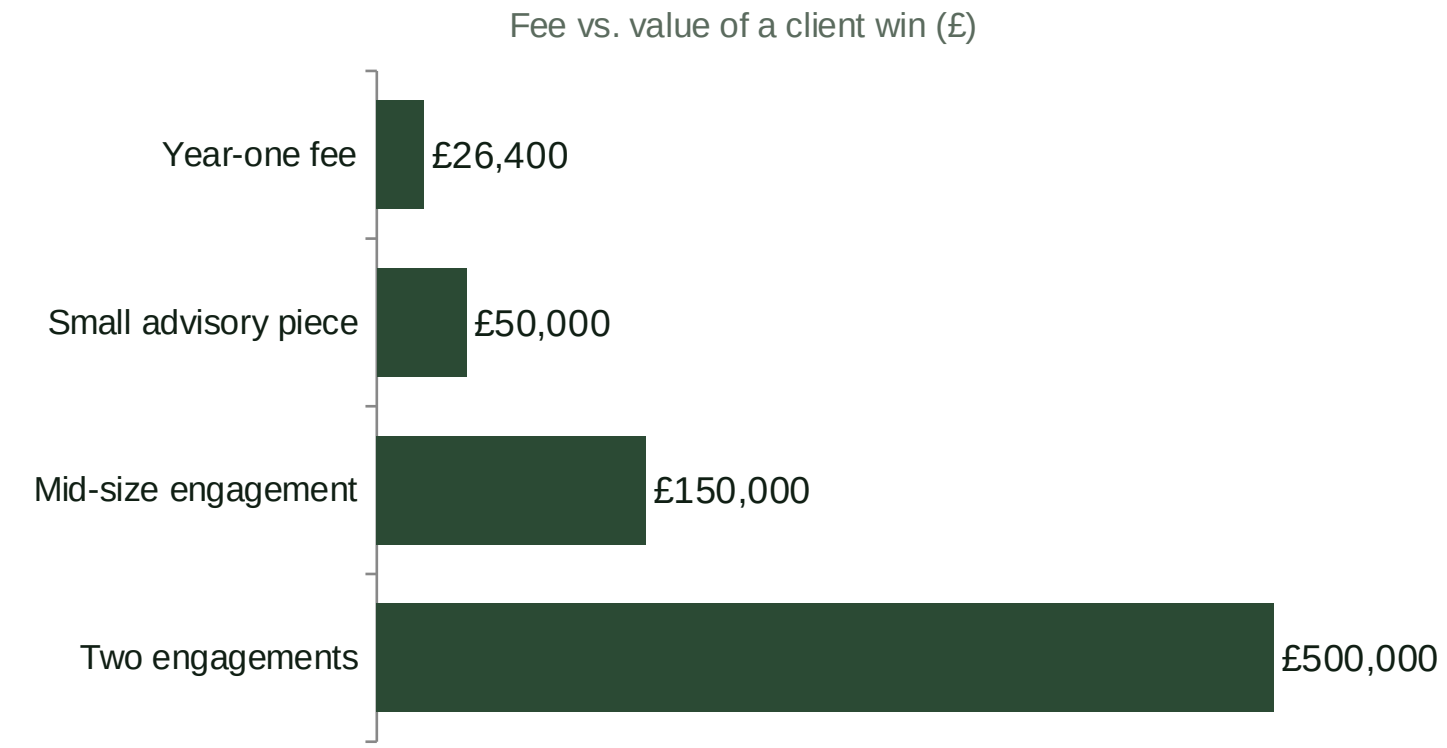

Year-one fee: £26,400.

Insights

Return on the fee, on profit at a 50% margin:

0.9× one small advisory piece
2.8× one mid-size engagement
9.5× two engagements

Most cash from big contracts lands in year two.

Illustrative figures from the consultancy plan, not results

Your role

How you can help, and how we’d work together.

Three ways you can help us grow

Working alongside us, not for us.

#1 Advise

Sharpen our offer, pricing and pitch. Sit in on key pitches and debrief us.

#2 Guide

Help us choose the one market to own first, and tell us which proof your network trusts.

#3 Introduce

Connect us with experts and firms who need us, and join first calls where your name helps.

Where your experience matters most

Being honest about our gaps gets better advice.

Proof

No case study with hard numbers yet.

What proof would your network trust?

Focus

We work in three very different markets.

Which one should we own?

Pricing

Our price is tested with only one client.

Is it right for the value?

Growth

Two founders do sales and delivery.

When should we hire, and who?

How we could work together: three options

Terms to agree together. We suggest starting with A for 90 days.

Option	How it works	Best when
A. Referral partner	A share of fees from clients you introduce, for their first year	You want simple, results-only terms
B. Advisor	Set hours each month, plus a smaller share of fees	Advice is the main value
C. Strategic advisor	A small stake in Extol, once the fit is proven	We both want long-term alignment

Review together at day 90, then move to B or C if it works for both sides.

The first 90 days together

Which market do you know best? Who comes to mind first?

Week 1

Agree the role and terms

Day 30

Choose one market; list 10 people to introduce

Day 60

First introductions and calls

Day 90

First new client, then review

End

You know the people. We build the system.
